Informational:

Please be advised that the Executive Office and Finance Bureau have placed this project on hold for approximately 60 days. Bids have not and will not be reviewed until such time as approval to move forward has been given. If you determine that changes to your proposals are warranted due to this delay please notify us in writing no later than October 30, 2009. The Court will determine at that time and based on your responses, whether it will need to re-issue the RFP or proceed with the evaluation process based on the proposals that have already been submitted. You will be contacted once that review process takes place as to whether follow up information is needed. We apologize for any inconvenience this delay may have caused.
