

Title 1. General and Administrative Rules

Chapter 1. General and Administrative Rules

Rule 1.10a. Emergency rule for juror questionnaires

(a) Mandatory questionnaire

Each prospective juror must complete a questionnaire for identification, qualification, ability to serve, and assistance in the voir dire process, ~~and fair population representation.~~

(b) Hardship questionnaire

Any prospective juror requesting to be excused from jury service because of undue hardship must complete a hardship questionnaire.

(c) Remote submission of questionnaires

Prospective jurors should complete and electronically submit all the mandatory and hardship questionnaires through to the Court's web site or jury web portal, the addresses of which are included as instructed in the jury summons and on the Court's jury duty web page. ~~Questionnaires completed through the web address must be submitted no later than 4:00 p.m. on the Tuesday prior to the date the juror has been summoned to appear in court.~~ If responses are not submitted through the internet as directed, the prospective juror must appear in person in court to complete the questionnaires in person on their jury summons date.

~~(d) Confidentiality~~

~~The responses to questionnaires will remain confidential to all but the attorneys and judge in the trial and will be destroyed if the prospective juror is not assigned to a trial.~~

Rule 1.10a amended August 14, 2020; adopted effective June 5, 2020.
