Rule 5.12. Electronic filing and service in family proceedings

~~(a)~~ Application and effective dates

~~The court adopts electronic filing (e-filing) and service in all family and family appellate proceedings as follows:~~

- ~~(1) Effective November 14, 2022, any party may agree to participate in e-filing using a court-approved e-filing service provider (EFSP). An agreement to participate in e-filing is also an agreement to serve and accept service electronically.~~
- ~~(2) Effective January 1, 2023, e-filing is required for all represented parties. Counsel must e-file using a court-approved EFSP and, except as otherwise required by law, must serve and accept service electronically.~~
- ~~(3) The effective dates in (1) and (2) may be postponed by the court as posted on the court's e-filing website at the link in (b).~~

(a) Mandatory use of electronic filing

Effective April 1, 2023, represented parties and other represented persons must participate in electronic filing (e-filing) using a court-approved electronic filing service provider (EFSP) and must serve and accept service electronically, except by court order or if other service is required by law. Under rule 2.253(b)(4) of the California Rules of Court, anyone required to e-file may request an exemption by filing a Request For Exemption From Mandatory Electronic Filing and Service (form EFS-007) with the assigned department or, if not assigned, with the supervising judge of the family law division.

(b) Permissive use of electronic filing

Effective February 21, 2023, any party or other person may consent to participate in e-filing, using a court-approved EFSP, by filing a notice of consent with the court and serving all parties. Unless other service is required by law or court order, anyone who consents to participate in e-filing must serve and accept service electronically.

(c) Effective dates

The above effective dates may be reset by the court as posted on the court's website.

~~(b)~~(d) TechnicalAdditional requirements

~~E-filed d~~ Documents must be e-filed in a searchable PDF format and comply with the technical requirements listed on the court's website, which includes a list of court-approved EFSPs. ~~Additional technical requirements and a list of court-approved EFSPs are posted on the court's e-filing website:~~
~~<http://alameda.courts.ca.gov/Pages.aspx/DomainWeb->~~

~~(c)~~(e) Exceptions

The following documents may not be e-filed:

- (1) Bench warrants;
- (2) Subpoenaed documents;
- (3) Bonds;
- (4) Undertakings;
- (5) Certified judgments;
- (6) Out-of-state or out-of-county abstracts and commissions;
- (7) Sister-state judgments;
- (8) Subpoenas for out-of-state actions;
- (9) Payee data records;
- (10) Any filing that requires parties to include a self-addressed stamped envelope; and
- (11) Any other document required by law to contain an original signature or to be filed in original form.

~~(d)~~(f) Confidential documents

Documents e-filed in actions under the Uniform Parentage Act are confidential and do not require a court order to seal.

~~(e)~~ Requests to seal

- ~~(1) To request sealing of documents, parties must e-file a motion for order to seal that includes a redacted version of the document with caption page that states "REDACTED" in bold type under the title, and an unredacted version of the document with caption page that states "UNREDACTED AND CONDITIONALLY UNDER SEAL" in bold type under the title. The unredacted document will be conditionally sealed until the court rules on the motion.~~
- ~~(2) To e-file a document subject to a previously granted order to seal, parties must file the sealed document with caption page that states "UNREDACTED AND UNDER SEAL BY COURT ORDER [date of sealing order]" in bold type under the title.~~
- ~~(3) Documents containing confidential materials filed in connection with a discovery motion do not require a court order to be filed under seal. The documents must state the word "DISCOVERY" in bold on the title page~~

~~and, as appropriate, the words “TO BE FILED UNDER SEAL” or “REDACTED.” If only portions of the document are confidential, parties must file redacted and unredacted versions of the document, labeled as set forth above.~~

(f)(g) Courtesy copies

~~Parties must deliver courtesy copies of all e-filed documents that exceed 10 pages to the department’s courtesy copy drop box within 24 hours of e-filing. All courtesy copies must have a cover page that includes a caption of the case, date, and department of the hearing. Courtesy copies of confidential documents must be placed in separate envelopes with the words “UNDER SEAL,” “LODGED CONDITIONALLY UNDER SEAL,” or “REDACTED,” as appropriate, on each envelope.~~

Unless otherwise ordered by the court, paper courtesy copies of all e-filed documents must be delivered to the clerk of the assigned department on the same day as they are e-filed or by the next court day if the relevant hearing is scheduled two or more court days after the date of e-filing.

Rule 5.12 amended effective January 1, 2023~~July 1, 2022~~; adopted effective July 1, 2022~~January 1, 2023~~.
